About TAGE 2024

TAGE (Tolkien Ancient Greek Event) is a spin-off of the AGE (Ancient Greek Event) series, born from the partnership between the Neosellen network and the cultural association Sentieri Tolkieniani. Both communities had long felt the need to merge their visions into a single event. What set the date was the upcoming release of the second season of the Prime Video Original series The Rings of Power. Though small in scale, the event marks the conclusion of a journey that began at Sentieri Tolkieniani 2024, held at the Castle of Macello near Turin, and continued through numerous gatherings in Pesaro, Bologna, and Pescara.
